They accompanied. I took a Horse & Buggy, and with Mr. Hawthorn, drove to Shelton, for the purpose of searching Blake's Trunk, & there remaining with his woman, and got at the trunk. I searched it but could find no counterfeit money, but I found different things, there, which he evidently had stolen, but as that was not my business, I left the trunk, bringing all his papers away with me, at Shelton. I searched the papers, which showed him, to have been in everything that was bad. I found amongst them, a Commission from Jeff Davis, signed by Judah P. Benjamin allowing him to pass through their lines, &c. and at the same time he held passes from most of the Union generals of the army of the Potomac, allowing him to establish himself in the he had also a ~~detective~~ papers, from ~~through~~ Hawthorn, photographic ~~engravings~~ & I with Hawthorn.
